For the attn of:
The Hon. Judge Kenneth A. Marra

Dear Hon. Judge Marra

Civil Action No. 9:17-CV-80495
CONSUMER FINANCIAL PROTECTION BUREAU vs.
OCWEN FINANCIAL CORPORATION

On Dec 27th 2018, we submitted a Motion to Intervene in the above styled case. It is recorded as Doc. 220, entered 4th January 2019, some 4 months ago.

To date, the motion[s] are pending and the case is moving towards trial. We are currently in litigation with Ocwen and require at least permissive intervention (24(b)) to obtain, at minimum, access to sealed documents that may help our own case, which is now on appeal to the Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit.

In support, we would cite the Larry Flynt intervention to unseal documents, which was granted on appeal to the US Court of Appeals for the 8th Cir., Case No. 14-1187 (2015).

A time is critical for our own appeal - as we may wish to include the documents recovered from the CFPB Florida case in our petition to the Fifth Circuit - your earliest assistance in this matter is respectfully requested.

Thanking you in advance.

Respectfully

Joanna Burke & John Burke

"The record seems to indicate that the district court believed Flynt failed to satisfy the commonality requirement of Rule 24(b) when it stated "[a] generalized interest in a subject of litigation does not justify intervention." However, where a party is seeking to intervene in a case for the limited purpose of unsealing judicial records, most circuits have found that "there is no reason to require such a strong nexus of fact or law." Beckman Indus., Inc. v. Int'l Ins. Co., 966 F.2d 470, 474 (9th Cir. 1992)... Accordingly, permissive intervention under Rule 24(b) is an appropriate procedural vehicle for non-parties seeking access to judicial records in civil cases..."
