Attorneys for Defendant Microsoft Corporation

Pursuant to Section 3(e) of the Court's Standing Order re: Pretrial Instructions in Civil Cases (last updated March 17, 2025), Plaintiff Elon Musk, the OpenAI Defendants, and Defendant Microsoft Corporation hereby submit this Amended Joint Exhibit List. This Amended Joint Exhibit List reflects the Parties' efforts to narrow the issues in dispute by engaging in a continued meet and confer process following the filing of the Amended Joint Exhibit List on March 12, 2026.

The Parties have assigned the following numeric designations: Musk (Exhibits 1-499); OpenAI (Exhibits 500-1499); Microsoft (Exhibits 1500-1604).

Appendix A to this Amended Joint Exhibit List includes documents that the Parties agree may be admitted into evidence at any time after opening statements, without the need for a witness to furnish a predicate for their admission. The Parties expressly reserve the right to object to the questioning of a given witness—including the manner of such questioning—about any of the listed exhibits. For this set of documents, "Appendix A" will appear in the column for "sponsoring witness" on the Amended Joint Exhibit List. For the avoidance of doubt, the listing of a sponsoring witness in addition to "Appendix A" for this set of exhibits does not reflect agreement among the Parties that the listed witness may properly be questioned about the exhibit.

In filing this Amended Joint Exhibit List, the Parties reserve the right to amend, supplement, or otherwise modify their exhibits and objections if new or additional information is provided at any point.[1]

[1] FRE 105 objections in this Amended Joint Exhibit List use the following convention:

- "FRE 105 (as against [party])" denotes that the party objects to admission of the exhibit against them for any purpose.
- "FRE 105 (part as against [party])" denotes that party objects to admission against them of statements made by another party's agents or employees contained within the exhibit.
- "FRE 105 (not for truth)" denotes an objection to admission for the truth of the matter(s) asserted therein.
- "FRE 105 (part not for truth)" denotes an objection to admission of some statements within the document for the truth of the matter(s) asserted in those statements.

The OpenAI Defendants and Microsoft reserve the right to further update their FRE 105 objections as the Parties continue the meet-and-confer process.
