ORDER TERMINATING MOTIONS AS MOOT

THIS CAUSE is before the Court following entry of a briefing schedule governing the submission of streamlined summary Judgment and Daubert motions on the claims of the remaining Federal Plaintiffs, and an order denying the parties' request for implementation of "provision" sealed filings procedures. In light of these rulings, and the recent final disposition of the claims of the Florida plaintiffs, a series of previously filed motions directed to the submission of information under seal in conjunction with Daubert and summary judgment motions, in addition to various substantive motions and other miscellaneous matters are now moot.

It is accordingly ORDERED AND ADJUDGED:

The Clerk is directed to TERMINATE the following motions as MOOT:

DE Nos. 629, 630, 632 (plaintiffs sealed joint motion for summary judgment), 634, 637, 638, 642 (defendants' sealed motion for summary judgment); 643, 654, 668, 669, 673

(sealed motion to strike); 678, 685, and 692.

DONE and SIGNED in Chambers at West Palm Beach, Florida this 17th day of November, 2020.

KENNETH A. MARRA
