WHEREAS Brandon Demond Frere ("Frere") is a defendant in the instant action; and

WHEREAS the United States Attorney's Office for the Northern District of California has filed a criminal complaint against Mr. Frere arising out of the same facts and circumstances that have given rise to the instant action, in a case captioned United States v. Frere, Case No. 3:18-mj-71724-SK (N.D. Cal.) (the "USAO action"); and

WHEREAS, although the Corporate Defendants, American Financial Benefits Center, Ameritech Financial, and Financial Education Benefits Center, are not parties to the USAO action, both actions arise out of the same facts and circumstances; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Frere believes he may be prejudiced if both the instant civil case and the parallel criminal case were to proceed, given the differing scope of discovery between the two actions; and

WHEREAS, the Corporate Defendants American Financial Benefits Center, Ameritech Financial, and Financial Education Benefits Center, are no longer operating entities but are being managed by the Court-appointed Receiver; and

WHEREAS, the Parties' proposed stay will not modify the Receivership in this case and the Receiver's duties, responsibilities, and authority, as set forth in the Modified Preliminary Injunction entered by this Court on November 29, 2018, will remain in force;

NOW THEREFORE, Defendants Brandon Demond Frere, American Financial Benefits Center, Ameritech Financial, and Financial Education Benefits Center, and Plaintiff Federal Trade Commission hereby stipulate and agree to the entry of an Order staying the civil action against the Defendants for nine (9) months or until the conclusion of the USAO Action, whichever is first.
