The Liquidating Receiver shall be an agent of this Court, and solely the agent of this Court, in acting as Liquidating Receiver under this Order. The Liquidating Receiver shall comply with all laws and Local Rules of this Court governing receivers. Except for an act of gross negligence, the Liquidating Receiver and any professionals it retains to assist it shall not be liable for any loss or damage incurred by Settling Defendants, their agents, employees, and attorneys or any other person, by reason of any act performed or omitted to be performed by the Liquidating Receiver or any professional it retains to assist it in connection with the discharge of its duties and responsibilities.

B. The Liquidating Receiver shall assume responsibility for management and maintenance of the Receivership Estate, including all assets transferred pursuant to the section titled Monetary Judgment and Partial Suspension at Section VII of this Order. The Liquidating Receiver shall preserve and protect such assets by undertaking necessary repairs, procuring appropriate insurance, and making required payments for taxes, insurance, assessments, reasonable and necessary maintenance, and any other actions necessary to efficiently manage the assets and to maintain their value. Payment for any service or activity necessary to preserve or protect such assets is payable from the assets of the Receivership Estate, without prior approval by the Court. All such payments shall be itemized in the Liquidating Receiver's reports to the Court or motions related to the sale of such asset.

C. The Liquidating Receiver shall liquidate the assets of the Receivership Estate and all net proceeds, after payment of any liens and necessary expenses of the Liquidating Receiver, shall be paid to the Commission. Such payment shall be made within 7 days following the Court's approval of the Liquidating Receiver's final application for compensation and expenses, by electronic fund transfer in accordance with instructions to be provided by a representative of the Commission.

D. In liquidating the assets of the Receivership Estate, the following provisions apply:

1. Pursuant to the provisions of 28 U.S.C. § 2001(b), the Liquidating Receiver shall, at reasonable cost and in a commercially reasonable fashion, liquidate, the assets of the Receivership Estate.

2. The Court approves the use of a realtor's marketing analysis as one of the three appraisals required by 28 U.S.C. § 2001(b).

3. Settling Defendants shall cooperate fully with the Liquidating Receiver and take such other steps as the Liquidating Receiver may require in connection with the listing, marketing, and sale of the assets of the Receivership Estate.

4. Settling Defendants shall sign any documents necessary for the sale of the assets of the Receivership Estate, including, but not limited to, powers of attorney and any documents necessary to effectuate a transfer of any such assets to third parties.

5. Settling Defendants shall cooperate fully and not interfere with the Liquidating Receiver's efforts to enter onto, market, and sell the real or personal property in the Receivership Estate. Settling Defendants shall provide timely and reasonable access to all prospective buyers and realtors, if their cooperation or assistance is necessary to accomplish such access. Settling Defendants shall have no authority, discretion, or control over the Liquidating Receiver's efforts to market or sell the property in the Receivership Estate.

6. All ad valorem taxes, any transfer fees, recording fees, other fees, advertising, and any commissions associated with or resulting from the sale of the assets of the Receivership Estate shall be paid from the proceeds of the sale(s) at the time the assets of the Receivership Estate are sold.

E. The Liquidating Receiver is entitled to reasonable compensation for the performance of duties pursuant to this Order and for the cost of actual out-of-pocket expenses incurred by it. The Liquidating Receiver's compensation and the compensation of any persons hired by it are to be paid solely from the assets of the Receivership Estate or the proceeds of the sale of the assets of the Receivership Estate, and such payments shall have priority over all other distributions except for any transfer fees, recording fees, or other payments owed through the transfer of the assets of the Receivership Estate at the time of their sale.

F. The Liquidating Receiver shall prepare and file all necessary reports or filings to comply with applicable state or federal laws with regard to the Receivership Estate, file its final report and application for fees, prepare and file the tax return for the Receivership Estate, complete liquidation and terminate its service within six (6) months of the date of this Order unless good cause is shown to extend the estate beyond six (6) months.

G. Upon completion of the above tasks and the final transfer of all funds to the Commission pursuant to this Section, the duties of the Liquidating Receiver shall terminate, be satisfied, and the Liquidating Receiver shall be entitled to an order discharging the Liquidating Receiver.
